ABOUT

Jennifer Salvetti-Kulla is a Certified Appraiser of Personal Property (ISA, CAPP) specializing in fine art appraisal for insurance, estate planning, and charitable donation. With over a decade of experience in the art industry, she combines academic training in art history and museum studies with a strong understanding of current market trends to provide clear, well-supported valuations. She has been trained in appraisal methodology, principles, and ethics through the International Society of Appraisers and maintains USPAP compliance. Jennifer works with collectors, attorneys, estate professionals, insurance companies, and institutions throughout Southern California, and collaborates with specialists to support complex and multi-category collections.
